

Dr. Sc. Velibor Srdić, assistant professor

Velibor Srdić was born in Zagreb in 1977. He is married and father of one child.

As a holder of the degree of Doctor of Sport Sciences he teaches at the Faculty of Sport Sciences Banja Luka, on the courses of Rhythmic Gymnastics and Dance, Theory of Sport Training and Sports Management. He has published 33 scientific papers, as author and co-author, which have been published in reference international journals and compilations of works. His entire dancing career is linked to the Gemma Dance Club Banja Luka, where he worked and is still working as a trainer, manager and Club President.

He is the founder and the Director of the Elementary School of Ballet in Banja Luka and the President of the Federation of Modern Dances of Bosnia and Herzegovina. He was the organizer of more important events in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the biggest of which was the International Dance Sport Competition Banja Luka Open project. He initiated the establishment of the Republic of Srpska Federation of Dance Sport and the Federation of Modern Dance of Bosnia and Herzegovina, where he has performed more functions.

He joined the IDO family in 2000. Since 2007, when he was elected to the position of the IDO Vice-President, he has been holding the office of the Director of the IDO Adjudication Committee. In 2011, he was, also, elected to the function of the IDO Senior Vice-President.