

IDO AWARDS

GUIDELINES & CRITERIA

Updated 2021-05-10

FOREWARD

The IDO has approved the creation of various awards to reward and express gratitude to individuals, groups, and IDO members for their achievement, loyalty, and/or special contribution. The IDO intends to grant awards in certain fields which will be organized and presented by the IDO. The IDO reserves the right and is not required to award any of the major awards in any specific calendar year.

The IDO has established four major awards:

- Awards to persons associated with the IDO
- Awards to IDO members
- Awards to persons related to his or her achievements for the IDO
- Awards to IDO members related to their achievements within the IDO

These Guidelines prescribe criteria and administrative instructions concerning IDO awards. Any matters not covered specifically by these Guidelines shall be referred to the Presidium, whose majority decision shall be final.

6. SUBMISSION OF NOMINATION

Associations and individuals who nominate a candidate for an award, and all award nominees must belong to the IDO Family. All nominations must include the candidate's contact information in addition to the reason and any argument for the nomination, written in the English language. The candidate may be nominated for one or several awards. Self-nomination is not permitted.

By their nomination for the award, and submission to the IDO, nominees accept the terms of these guidelines and the decisions of the "Authorized IDO Body" (as defined in these guidelines, under "Who makes the decision?"). To the extent permitted by law, award nominees shall have no right of recourse (whether through ordinary courts, arbitration, or other) with respect to the award and, in particular, but without limitation, against the decisions of the IDO (authorized body).

Submission of a nomination for the award must arrive at the IDO Secretariat (within the set deadline if defined in a call) in all cases. Nominations received after the deadline will not be considered.

Based on the above awards criteria, an authorized IDO body will review the submitted nominations at its official meeting.

7. SELECTION PROCESS

The “Authorized IDO Body” decides an Award by a simple majority. Its decision is final and is not subject to any appeal process. It is not required to publish explanations of its decision taken in regard to any or all IDO Awards.

Whenever a person who is entitled to vote for an award is determined to be in a conflict-of-interest situation, he or she must be absent from any discussion of the nomination and is forbidden to vote for the award in question.

Conflict-of-Interest is determined when any of the following criteria is applicable:

- A person is from the same organization as the nominee
- There is a family link between a person and the nominee
- A person was in conflicts or any other similar reasons with the nominee
- A person is a nominee.

8. AWARD REVOCATION

All award nominees and recipients are to adhere to the IDO Code of Ethics and Disciplinary Procedures and IDO Code of Conduct. An IDO award comes with an ethical obligation to act in such a manner that the trust and public confidence of the IDO are enhanced, and without embarrassment to or adverse reflection or impact on the integrity of the IDO. If at any time a winner is found in violation of the IDO Code of Ethics after a review by the IDO Disciplinary & Ethics Committee, their award status can be revoked by vote of the AGM.

9. HALL OF FAME

The awards are given to the recipients during an official awarding ceremony, which may be a part of some other IDO event.

The lists of awarded persons/teams are published on the IDO website under the “Hall of Fame” section, on social media outlets such as Facebook and Instagram, and in other marketing materials deemed appropriate by the IDO.

The list of awarded persons/teams will be stored in an internal archive. Accessibility to the documents is possible by written request to the IDO Presidium. If approved, the applicant will receive the requested information in an official letter or by email. The archived list can be partly or completely purged if such decision is taken by the AGM.

10. VALIDITY

These Guidelines are effective from 2021-01-01, confirmed by the IDO Executive Presidium at its meeting (2021-05-10).
