A few informations about Kielce city

Kielce is the city located in the heart of the oldest European mountains - Świętokrzyskie Mountains called also as the Holy Cross Mountains. It is the capital of Świętokrzyskie Province and the main city in Kielce Metropolitan Area. In the past the city cemented its claims as the cradle of building industry. Nowadays, it is a bustling spot on the Polish map.

It is the economic, academic, cultural, touristic and relaxational centre in the South-Eastern part of Poland. Within the boundaries of Kielce there are as many as 5 nature reserves, where there are plenty of geological peculiarities. It is a real treasure trove of knowledge and secrets for paleontology and archeology lovers.

The city is also an important centre for fairs and exhibitions. Kielce Trade Fairs, which organize nearly 80 specialized events annually, that combines both, conferences and displays, creates perfect opportunities to initiate business contacts. Kielce may boasts a huge trail network even for those who like to combine sport and a large dose of adrenaline. Enthusiasts of skiing, walking, hiking, biking can enjoy kilometres of great fun.

Enjoy the nature and find the top rated trails in Kielce, whether you are looking an easy walking path or a long bike trail, you will find what you are looking for. Combine dancing with holiday rest, WELCOME TO POLAND!

Venue

KIELCE DANCE THEATRE POLISH CONTEMPORARY JAZZ/BALLET

Kielce Dance Theater exists as one of the three institutional dance theaters in Poland. The theater made its debut with the play Feelings, which premiered in December 1995. on the stage of the Theatre. Stefan Jaracz in Olsztyn. The choreographies for the three-part performance were created by Elżbieta Pańtak and Piotr Galiński. The Kielce Dance Theater was founded in 1995 on the basis of the artistic achievements of Elżbieta Pańtak's private company.

On March 11, 2004, at the request of Mayor Wojciech Lubawski, the Theater was established by a resolution of the Kielce City Council as a municipal cultural institution (since 2013, an artistic institution, entered in the register of the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage). The directors aim to create a team specializing in a repertoire based on jazz dance styles in its traditional and contemporary variations.
